Camillus man helps create “Home Away from Home”

Daniel Bullock, of Camillus, regularly volunteers at the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York. Bullock began cooking monthly meals for the house in fall 2008 after realizing how blessed he and his wife are to have a beautiful and healthy child. In appreciation for his good fortune, Bullock cooks delicious meals for the guests and is known for his chicken riggies!

About Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York: Ronald McDonald House Charities of CNY operates the 16-bedroom CNY Ronald McDonald House 24-hours a day, year-round as a “home away from home” for families whose children are hospitalized with serious illnesses or injuries. RMHC of CNY is planning to build a new, larger Ronald McDonald House that will allow the organization to help keep even more families with seriously ill children together. For more information or to donate, visit www.cnyronaldmcdonaldhouse.org.
